1.0. INTRODUCTION

Effective regulation of the importation and exportation of internationally traded goods is key in ensuring the protection of the health and safety of consumers around the world. Clearance of fresh fruits and vegetables for export, as carried out by the Food and Drugs Authority (FDA) at the port, typically involves permit issuance and inspection, both of which are mandated by the Public Health Act, Act 851 of 2012, as a measure to check potential foodborne diseases associated with the consumption of imported fresh fruits and vegetables.

These guidelines outline the processes and procedures involved in the application for and issuance of electronic permits as well as the inspection and release of consignments of fresh fruits and vegetables.

These guidelines are hereby promulgated for information, guidance and strict adherence by all concerned

1.1. Scope

In the exercise of the powers conferred on the Food and Drugs Authority by Part 7, section 99 of the Public Health Act, Act 851 of 2012 and in order to ensure the safety and quality of fresh fruits and vegetables as required by the Code of Hygienic Practice for fresh Fruits and Vegetables (CAC/RCP 53-2003) and the Code of Practice for Packaging and Transport of Fresh Fruits and Vegetables (CAC/RCP 44-1995); these guidelines apply to all consignments of fresh fruits and vegetables earmarked for export for distribution or offer for sale for human or animal consumption.

The purpose of these guidelines is to provide exporters of fresh fruits and vegetables guidance in meeting the legal and regulatory requirements of the Food and Drugs Authority (FDA) in order to avoid or reduce rejection (re-export) and/or food safety risks associated with the consumption of fresh fruits and vegetables.
