PUBLIC ALERT: EXPIRED CHARMÉ SPARKLING JUICE

The Food and Drugs Authority (FDA) in collaboration with the Ghana Police Service has retrieved 270 cartons of expired CHARME SPARKLING NON-ALCOHOLIC RED AND WHITE GRAPE JUICE being sold following a tip off from a vigilant member of the public.

The distributor of the product has been arrested to assist with investigations.

The details of the products are as follows.

Product Name	Best Before Date
CHARMÉ NON-ALCOHOLIC SPARKLING RED GRAPE JUICE	25/10/2021
CHARMÉ NON-ALCOHOLIC SPARKLING WHITE GRAPE JUICE	06/08/2021

The public is hereby cautioned against consuming the above-mentioned products as FDA cannot guarantee their quality and safety.

FDA will retrieve any of these products found during its market surveillance activities. Also, persons in possession of these products should return them immediately to any FDA office across the country.

The FDA is by this press release also alerting the public to be extra vigilant as we approach this festive season to ensure that products purchased are of good quality and within the Best Before or Expiry Dates.

All concerns and communication on the above press release as well as any FDA related issue should be channelled through the following contacts.
