

Food and Drugs Authority Website Content Disclaimer

The information contained in the Food and Drugs Authority web site is provided by the Food and Drugs Authority as a public service to the regulatory community and the general public. The contents of this website are subject to periodic change. Information represented here is not intended to replace official sources.

Although every attempt will be made to ensure that the information is accurate and timely, the information is presented "as is" and without warranties. Information contained on our web site should not be mistaken for legal advice. Information contained herein should also not be considered error-free and should not be used as the exclusive basis for decision-making.

While we endeavour to keep the information up to date and correct, we make no representations or warranties of any kind, express or implied, about the completeness, accuracy, reliability, suitability or availability with respect to the website or the information, products, services, or related graphics contained on the website for any purpose. Use of website information is strictly voluntary and any reliance placed on such information is at the user's sole risk.

In no event will the Authority be liable for any loss or damage including without limitation, indirect or consequential loss or damage, or any loss or damage whatsoever arising from loss of data or profits arising out of, or in connection with, the use of this website.

Through this website you are able to link to other websites which are maintained by independent providers and not under the control of the Food and Drugs Authority. We have no control over the nature, content and availability of those sites. The inclusion of any links may not necessarily represent the opinions or policies of the Authority, its officers or employees.

Every effort is made to keep the website up and running smoothly. However, the Food and Drugs Authority will take no responsibility for, and will not be liable for, the website being temporarily unavailable due to technical issues beyond our control.
