

MRS DARKO AWARDED FEMALE BUSINESS LEADER OF THE YEAR

The Chief Executive Officer (CEO) of the Food and Drugs Authority (FDA), Mrs Delese Darko was awarded the Female Business Leader of the year 2019 at the just ended Ghana Business Standard Awards at the Movenpick Ambassador Hotel.

The award is in recognition of Mrs Darko's outstanding achievements with the FDA for the year under review. Some of these landmark laurels with the FDA included the launching of the 'Made in Ghana Display' at Supermarkets, the FDA's provision of technical support for factories involved in the One District, One Factory (1D1F) initiative; the enforcement of the restricted time for the airing of alcoholic beverage advertisements, as well as nationwide public education and combating opioid abuse, counterfeit and unwholesome product.

The Ghana Business Standard Awards, which is organized by KN Unique Communications, seeks to celebrate organizations and individuals committed to remarkable business standards in their respective sectors.

The Awards Event is also aimed at honouring industry leaders breaking barriers of excellence across the Ghanaian business community.

Congratulations Mrs Darko for your immense contributions to the development of the country.
